

Our client is a global automotive tier one company, HQ in Europe, with:

- Industrial presence in about 25 countries
- Well recognized expertise in our fields
- Positive and pragmatic management culture

HR Country Manager Brazil Based Caçapava

Mission: reporting to regional GM , plus functionally to HR Group , you drive the growth locally , meaning that you

- Do act as business partner in your HR Role next to the management team building the future organization
- Manage a small team of specialists with the support of corporate when needed
- Support both plants by your presence, one with maturity and some history , one where you are based which is on a strong development curve
- Handle as a HR generalist all related issues, including administration support, and labor relations locally
- Focus of course on talent management, staffing, development
- Contribute actively to management team building, efficiency and spirit and represent at your level all our Group values

Profile:

- University degree, bachelor or equivalent
- Significant experience , 15 years + , in HR role within industrial environment, preferably with some exposure in automotive or related world
- Practical experience of international organization, including matrix reporting
- Fluent English

- Business partner actual mindset to take your role with the management team
- Ability and will to influence and initiate
- Very good communicator
- Natural Charisma
- Motivating conditions: base + bonus + car

Please send a copy of your resume under ref BRHR/0315 in English to

info@montero-lombart.com